COELO DINING

The Coelo dining collection is a painted range of country style furniture with the added benefit of a choice of colours. Stunning centrepiece design is the key to the Coelo collection and dining range ensures that this is true in any style of home. The legs, base plinths and frames are made from solid Birch wood with the tops all being manufactured from solid European Oak. The handles are made from stainless steel, using both the shell style and trumpet.
